BELFAST ON THE LAGAN

LL6129

TUCK'S POST CARD.

CARTE POSTALE. POSTKARTE.

The River Lagan rises in Slieve Croob in County Down and runs through that county to Moira, and thence to Belfast, forming a boundary between Down and Antrim. In places it is very pretty, being overhung by trees and the banks covered with sylvan foliage. In Belfast it is crossed by three bridges—the Queen's, the Albert, and the Ormeau.
